

The Copts / Press Kit

The Copts

A Hady Zaccak TV overview documentary

Original title: Al Akbat

Year of production: 2004

Original language: Arabic

Research: Jean Kassis, Hady Zaccak, Antoinette Geagea.

Narration: Jean Kassis

Director of Photography: Fouad Sleiman

Sound: Marwan el Masri

Editing: Elias Shaheen

Music: David Rohl

Production Manager & Assistant Director: Souraya el-Far

Producer: Antoinette Geagea

Production supervision: Najat Rizk, Mona Mounayyar

Executive production: Firehorse Films (Lebanon)

Production: Al Jazeera Documentary Channel (Qatar)

Written and Directed by: Hady Zaccak

Format: Digital Betacam

Running time: 52 minutes

Participants: Helmi family- Tadros family- Al Arafa family-Pope Schnouda III-Sheikh Tantawi-Sami Sharaf- Rifaat el Said-Samir Morcos-Mary Assaad- Imad Gad...

Synopsis

This documentary about the Copts in Egypt enters inside the community through two different families (The Helmis and the Arafas). We discover their lives, the relation with the church, the dogma, the history, the traditions, the arts and the problems that the Copts are facing in Egypt. In this context, the focus is on the opinions of the youth: Rami and Sara Helmi. This is a special journey inside Egypt.

This documentary was broadcasted in 2007 on Al Jazeera Documentary Channel and on New TV in 2010.

Photos

More pictures @ www.hadyzaccak.com/thecoypsphotos.html

